

South Australian Antimicrobial Resistance Action Plan (SAAMRAP) Steering Committee Membership

The SAAMRAP Steering Committee consists of a cross-sectoral team, with members representing organisations from human and animal health, and the environmental and agricultural sectors.

MEMBERS
Dr Manya Angley	Pharmaceutical Society of Australia
Dr Anushia Ashokan	Royal Australasian College of Physicians
Professor Mary Barton	Australian Veterinary Association
Dr Bernard Carney	Royal Australasian College of Surgeons
Dr Mary Carr	Chief Veterinary Officer, Department of Primary Industries & Regions SA – Co-Chair
Dr Geoffrey Dandie	Veterinary Surgeons Board of South Australia
Assoc Professor Erica Donner	Future Industries Institute, UniSA (CRC SAAFE)
Dr Louise Flood	Communicable Disease Control Branch, SA Health
Dr Nadine Hillock	Antimicrobial Programs National Antimicrobial Utilisation Surveillance Program, SA Health
Dr Daniel Hoefel	SA Water
Dr Jaiveer Krishnan	Royal Australasian College of General Practitioners
Ms Lisien Loan	Department for Environment & Water
Professor Simon Maddocks	Primary Producers SA
Cassie Mason	Office for Aging Well, Department for Health & Wellbeing, SA Health
Dr Greg Miller	Royal Australasian College of Dental Surgeons
Professor Geraint Rogers	SA Health and Medical Research Institute
Dr Lara Settimio	Environmental Protection Authority
Professor Nicola Spurrier	Chief Public Health Officer, SA Health – Co-Chair
Professor Darren Trott	Australian Centre for AMR Ecology School of Animal and Veterinary Sciences, The University of Adelaide
Professor John Turnidge	Senior Medical Advisor ACSQHC
Dr Morgyn Warner	SA Pathology South Australian expert Advisory Group on Antimicrobial Resistance

EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS
Ms Tanja Gustafsson	Executive Support, Communicable Disease Control Branch, SA Health
Dr Fay Jenkins	Communicable Disease Control Branch, SA Health